Anne Lamott is the author of The New York Times bestsellers Almost Everything; Hallelujah Anyway; Small Victories; Stitches; Help, Thanks, Wow; Some Assembly Required; Grace (Eventually); Plan B; and Traveling Mercies, as well as several novels. The March 4 event will be an exclusive pre-recorded discussion available on a very limited release to Bookmarks and a few other bookstores.

In Dusk, Night, Dawn, Anne Lamott explores the tough questions that many of us grapple with. How can we recapture the confidence we once had as we stumble through the dark times that seem increasingly bleak? As bad news piles up--from climate crises to daily assaults on civility--how can we cope? Where, she asks, "do we start to get our world and joy and hope and our faith in life itself back . . . with our sore feet, hearing loss, stiff fingers, poor digestion, stunned minds, broken hearts?". Dusk, Night, Dawn is an inspiring guide to restoring hope and joy in our lives.

Admission for the event is by purchase of Dusk, Night, Dawn (limited signed copies will be available). To purchase the book and register for the event go to:
